« Classé XXX » takes us behind the scenes of the porn film industry. The host meets with the actresses, actors, directors and producers at the heart of this subculture, as they carry on with their daily lives. Just who are these men and women who earn their keep with sex? What kind of life do they have away from the cameras? What about their families, their children? Can they really live from their “craft”? On and off the movie sets, this fascinating series explores the professional and personal challenges that go together with a very non-traditional way of life.
