One stormy day, 14-year-old Vincent is literally sucked into the video magazine he is reading. Instantaneously he's as flat as a pancake - just like the characters in the magazine! Vincent's mission is now to try to find his way back to "reality". With this in mind he teams up with a 12-year-old spunky magazine model, Kyu, who also craves getting out. However being stuck in the pages of magazines does have its advantages. Vincent can now meet the people and visit the places he has always dreamed of. Whether it is inside the pages of Martial Arts, The Paranormal, or Space, Vincent is having the thrill of a lifetime!
