Dean's Office is a spin-off or sequel to "End it All Now" tracks the super hip, savvy, outspoken and oddball students of UNY, who have been left high and dry by their less-than-scrupulous advisor, Mr. Knox, who is on the run from the government and now the mess he left behind. When shadowy federal agents descend on the school, two things become clear. Mr. Knox was not who everyone thought he was and the Dean is not sure who to trust, the University, her students or her faculty.
