A fascinating documentary about an enigmatic historical figure ...

The story begins in Canada in 1610 with the arrival of the French Étienne Brûlé in Ontario. Considered the ancestor of Franco-Ontarians, Étienne Brûlé is officially one of the heroes of the history of the province of Ontario, although the details of his life are relatively unknown. However, some historians see in this enthusiasm that exaltation of popular belief and oral mythology. Searching for Étienne Brûlé on the trail of Étienne Brûlé, Champigny sur Marne in the expedition of Samuel Champlain, installation among the Hurons, his life being trapper becoming a wealthy merchant, an exciting and surprising journey through extraordinary destiny.
