

Claire & the elderly

After a call to 911 to save her addict mother, Claire, 9 years old, is taken by social services. She quickly ends up with the only relative she has left: her grand-mother Pauline. Overnight, she finds herself living in a seniors' residence. She slowly develops a special relationship with her grandma despite the many obstacles, and becomes friends with a few elders. Thanks to her great imagination and her ability to make others laugh, Claire makes her way through the residence. She hangs on to the affection and stability older people can offer her but the situation is only temporary...

6 x 10-13' | Drama | 2020 | FR version w/ENG subtitles | Worldwide Rights

CLAIRE & THE ELDERLY

Episodic Synopsis

EPISODE 1 - The Arrival

Following her mother's hospitalization, Claire is taken to her grandmother Pauline's residence by Greg, her social worker. Most residents are happy to meet the girl, but not all the employees.

EPISODE 2 - Fruit Salad

Claire's mother Danielle was supposed to visit her, but she doesn't show up. Pauline must go see her husband Gilles at the Long-Term Care Center and has Claire looked after by a babysitter. The day takes an unexpected turn when Claire sneaks out of the apartment.

EPISODE 3 - The Birthday

To celebrate Claire's birthday, Pauline takes her shopping. They then go to the Long-Term Care Center where Claire notices the extent of her grandfather's Alzheimer. Upon their return to the residence, a charming surprise awaits Claire.

EPISODE 4 - The Stolen Gift

Determined to change her grandmother's state of mind, Claire arranges for her to miss her appointment at the Long-Term Care Center. Pauline harshly reprimands Claire. Things calm down, but an unexpected visit from Claire's mother again disturbs them.

EPISODE 5 - The Pop Singer

Spring break is over, and Claire is back to school. Pauline convinces her to invite a friend over at the residence. The beginning of the weekend is going well, but an unexpected visit from Greg changes everything ...

EPISODE 6 - The Goodbyes

Claire is having a great day while her friend Mathilde is visiting her at the residence. But a visit from Greg turns everything upside down. Claire will not be able to return to live with her mother and a new family awaits her. Troubled, she runs away...

